

Transfer of SAP ERP System of Nizhny Tagil Iron and Steel Works to a Unified SAP ERP EVRAZ system landscape

Sector:	Metallurgy
Region:	Russia
Year:	2020
Client:	EvrzHolding LLC, Nizhny Tagil Iron and Steel Works (EVRAZ NTMK)
Task:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Development of a list of requirements for the NTMK SAP ERP system;• Creation of the concept of IT projects at NTMK;• assessment of existing processes, making decisions on further use or modification;• identification of unused/outdated functions;• development of design solutions for processes unique to the NTMK SAP ERP system;• identification of business processes discrepancies at EVRAZ NTMK comparing to other assets of EVRAZ;• development of scenarios for subsequent settings to transfer the existing functionality of material flow management in terms of MM, WMS, QM, LE and financial management, implemented in SAP ERP at NTMK into a single SAP ERP EVRAZ system.
Result:	Due to the successful implementation of the project, today the users EVRAZ NTMK work in a unified SAP ERP EVRAZ system landscape which benefits production efficiency. EvrazHolding and the ITPS Group of Companies continue cooperation on the transfer of the SAP ERP system into a unified SAP ERP EVRAZ landscape at the next enterprise – West Siberian Metallurgical Plant.
Line of activity:	System integration
Review:	“The work conducted on the transfer of the SAP ERP system at NTMK into a unified SAP ERP EVRAZ system landscape was performed within the agreed time period. We are grateful to the ITPS team for effective cooperation, outstanding professional expertise together with the knowledge of industry specifics. We would like to recommend the ITPS Group of Companies as a competent and reliable IT partner in the implementation and integration of solutions based on SAP products for metallurgical and mining enterprises”.

A.V. Savin Director for Information Technologies at the Ural Division of EVRAZ