

Realization of the SAP/R3 Enterprise Management System implementation and adjustment project for the RN-Inform LLC

Sector: Oil and gas

Region: Russia

Client: RN-Inform LLC

Task: To improve the performance of production company management, according to the enterprise management system solutions based on SAP R/3 of the NK Rosneft OJSC and according to the financial, tax and management accounting requirements of the company and subsidiaries.

Review: "The consultants of the Parma-Telecom LLC demonstrated deep knowledge in the area of the examination of the existing business processes and the design of those to be automated, high professionalism during the technical implementation of the established objectives, commitment and efficiency during their work with the Client.
Our Company expresses its gratitude to the Parma-Telecom LLC for the high level of professionalism, good results, benevolence to the Client and recommends it for the resolution of SAP-based management systems implementation issues."

First Deputy General Director for Production of the RN-Inform LLC, L.S. Schwartzman

* The project was implemented by the Parma-Telecom company (ITPS Group)

 The material is available in Russian version only