

Managing a project to implement an integrated information system in LUKOIL Mid-East Ltd.

Sector:	Oil and gas
Region:	Iraq
Client:	LUKOIL
Task:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Strategic planning of the project consisting of 6 business applications, taking into account the development phase of West Qurna-2• Operational management, planning and follow-up of project activities• Organization of administrative procedures• Organization of support for implemented business applications
Result:	The integrated information system of LUKOIL Mid-East Ltd was implemented within the specified timeframe and budget. The customer was provided with a complete package of information systems required for this phase of asset development. IIS supported the development and infrastructure construction for West Qurna-2. In 2012, the project was awarded the title of “Best Project of the Year” by judges in the Russian Global Cio IT director community competition.
Partners:	SAP, Microsoft, Oracle, OpenText
Review:	"It's worth noting that ITPS* demonstrated its commitment to providing a high-quality service, in-depth knowledge of the latest solutions, a high level of expertise operating within the oil and gas sector and an understanding of the specific nature and objectives of LUKOIL Overseas Holding." Iskander Nasyrov, Managing director of LUKOIL Mid-East Ltd

* The project was implemented by Parma Telecom (ITPS)

 The material is available in Russian version only